Description

An elegant and refined antique Louis XVI style fireplace crafted from white statuary marble, dating from the 19th century. This model features three-quarter columns with capitals and finely sculpted medallions on its mantelpiece. It retains its original three-part cast iron fireback and its fireback with Siena yellow marble cabochons. The fireplace is in very good original condition and is currently being cleaned and restored in our workshops; it will soon be available in our showroom.
