Description

This vintage Romanian rug, circa 1980, features a rich floral composition on a deep midnight blue background. The central field is adorned with a profusion of stylized flowers, sinuous stems, and elegant palmettes, arranged harmoniously and symmetrically. Warm shades of red, gold, and brown stand out with refinement against the dark background, creating a striking and highly decorative visual contrast. The wide beige border is punctuated by a succession of floral motifs and delicate plant forms, highlighted with touches of color that echo those in the center. The overall effect is a luminous frame that emphasizes the density and depth of the central design. In good used condition, this rug displays a patina consistent with its vintage character, adding to the charm of its traditional motifs and its decorative appeal. Size : 300 x 200 cm + 5 cm of fringe on each side. Condition : Used, with small white wool spots scattered throughout. One edge has some wool missing. The fringes show some soiling, as seen in the photos. There are a few minor imperfections, a subtle color variation against the blue background. The rug remains sturdy and in good overall condition, fully retaining its decorative appeal and vintage character. *Video available upon request MY COMPLETE GALLERY
