Description

A decorative bowl signed WMF, emblematic of the Art Nouveau style, crafted in silver-plated metal. This piece features an elegant female figure standing at the center, her arms raised behind her head, her flowing lines extending into a drape that blends seamlessly into the base. The bowl comprises four broad petals with finely worked, undulating edges, reminiscent of the organic forms typical of Jugendstil. In good condition, but with some minor losses to the silver plating on the petals. Delivery possible, please contact me.
