Description

A unique oriental 10-drawer cabinet inlaid with mother-of-pearl, a one-of-a-kind piece from the 1950s (circa). The piece was restored in our workshop. It is made of teak wood from the Middle East. It is a rare and fascinating piece, characterized by its pyramid shape and 10 drawers, progressively smaller towards the top. It is richly hand-inlaid with mother-of-pearl. It is in perfect condition with no missing parts. This piece is ideal for entryways, living rooms, bedrooms, or as a collector's item. Its shape and the balance of the inlay can enhance any space. Dimensions: maximum width of base 60 cm, depth 23 cm, height 140 cm
