

Early 20th-century French School, Drawing, Profile Of A Young Woman

600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 26,5 cm

Height : 36 cm

Description

FRENCH SCHOOL, early 20th century. "Profile of a Young Woman" Pencil, sanguine, and watercolor drawing. Art Nouveau style wooden frame under glass. Dimensions: H. 36 cm, W. 26.5 cm. Dimensions with frame: H. 51 cm, W. 38 cm. Three small marks on the lower cheek. This medallion profile depicts a young woman with finely drawn features, exuding a distinguished allure. Although dated 1921, it retains a certain turn-of-the-century charm. The portrait features a young woman with an attractive face, a sharp gaze, and an aristocratic bearing. She appears radiant and confident. The paleness of her complexion bathes her bare shoulders, elegant neck, and face. Only the light blue of her iris, shaded with sanguine, and the delicate red of her lips stand out. The artist,

Dealer

Galerie Chabert

Paintings, drawings and engravings of the 19th and 20th century

Mobile : 0613808951

Agen 47000

whose signature is indecipherable, knows how to use the pencil to define the contours very accurately, sanguine to shade and model, or watercolor to introduce volumes and movement.