Description

DINH VAN - Square cuff bracelet in silver (>800°/°°). This bracelet is reminiscent of the Square or Seventies collections still available today. It was handmade for Dinh Van by Tétard Frères, one of the most prestigious French goldsmiths. It is part of a very small series produced in the early days of the brand. Jewelry bearing the date next to the signature, made by Dinh Van in the early 1970s, as well as pieces made by Dinh Van for Cartier New York bearing both signatures, are particularly sought after. Signed Dinh Van, dated 1970, with the crab's head hallmark for silver and the Tétard manufacturer's hallmark. Note a slight deformation of the bracelet, which does not alter the overall aesthetics of the piece. The finely crafted bracelet will naturally adapt to the wrist of
