Description

This pair of porcelain vases, from the early 20th century, features a rich and detailed polychrome decoration. Each vase displays hand-painted narrative scenes depicting figures in traditional clothing within architectural settings characteristic of Chinese artistic tradition. The surfaces are enhanced with floral motifs, colorful borders, and applied relief elements such as ribbons and stylized zoomorphic details. The elongated form, with broad shoulders and a flared rim, recalls 19th-century models, while the elaborate ornamentation suggests a symbolic and refined decorative intent. The overall effect conveys a strong sense of craftsmanship and traditional visual storytelling. Contact us for more information.
