Description

Scandinavian-style sideboard by SUTCLIFFE TODMORDEN, English-made in the 1960s in light teak. The lower section features two drawers and two doors, while the upper section has a glass-fronted display cabinet with two smoked glass panes on one side, and a drop-down door on the other revealing a storage space that could be used as a bar. The piece is in very good condition, having been cleaned and waxed by us. Original brass hardware. Delivery within France and internationally: please contact us.
