Description

Pair of Art Deco bedside tables dating from the 1920s, topped with green Estours marble that contrasts with the warmth of the walnut and highlights the unique character of each piece. Each of these small tables features a drawer at the top with a round metal knob and two central doors decorated with carved motifs. On either side of the doors are open shelves providing accessible storage and an architectural visual appeal. The interior also includes a shelf. The walnut displays a deep grain and a caramel brown hue. These bedside tables are equally at home in a bedroom or as accent pieces in an entryway or living room. Period: 1920 Excellent condition Restored by our workshop Waxed finish Shipped with careful packaging and appropriate protection Delivery upon request in
