Description

A superb bronze sculpture depicting a young child holding an open umbrella, a scene full of poetry and tenderness. The brown and gold patina beautifully highlights the child's form, facial details, and joyful expression. The umbrella, with its gilded underside, adds a lovely luminosity to the whole. The piece rests on an elegant onyx base with warm hues, perfectly underscoring the refinement of this creation. The fine and delicate workmanship recalls the style and sensibility of Demetre Chiparus, a great master of Art Deco sculpture.
