

Louis XIV Style Mazarin Desk In Ebonized Wood

2 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Painted wood

Description

A Louis XIV style Mazarin desk in ebonized wood, opening with several drawers in the front and on the side, typical of this model with multiple legs. The drawers are highlighted with gilt stringing and adorned with bronze keyhole escutcheons. The top is covered in red leather. The desk rests on eight turned, tapered legs, joined by a shaped stretcher, forming an elegant and structured whole, characteristic of the Mazarin style. A 20th-century piece, echoing the forms and aesthetics of Louis XIV furniture. A decorative piece, with good presence and in good overall condition.
