Description

A very interesting cup made by the renowned Parisian silversmith Sixte-Simon Rion. It rests on a flat base. The lower half of the cup is faceted; the upper half is plain silver with a very flared rim. It is engraved "Ecoffet," probably the name of its first owner. The cup bears the following hallmarks: Old man's hallmark for 950/1000 silver in Paris Sixte-Simon Rion's silversmith's mark, active from 1824 to 1834 Large guarantee mark of the city of Paris for 1819-1838 A magnificent cup of very high quality, as always with this renowned silversmith. It is heavy, substantial, and particularly rare, especially interesting for its two-tiered decoration. 9 cm high 9 cm wide at the rim 169.7 grams Very good condition. Minor signs of use with a slightly more visible mark under the bowl. Collection in Paris or shipping via insured
