Description

This beautiful and sturdy small oak side table, with turned column legs and crossbars framing the legs, features a curved top, a generous drawer in the front, and an extraordinary, chiseled bronze handle. This stylish table, which can serve as a console or end table for your living room, is richly carved on the front and both sides. A compact piece of furniture, easy to place, and in very good condition, it is also decorative with its elaborate carving in the style of the "Haute Époque" and the reign of Henry II. With its appropriate dark patina, this table, with its elegant base and ornate frieze, will charm with its high decorative value and practicality. A quality piece, useful and attractive, in excellent condition.
