Description

This is a gouache on paper mounted on a panel and attractively framed. We note some minor losses and stains on the painting. Overall, however, it remains in acceptable condition. A multi-talented artist, Michel Debiève (1931-2021) dedicated his life to painting, drawing, sculpture, and numerous other techniques. With a lifelong passion for creation, Michel Debiève continued to invent, surprise, and experiment, as evidenced by the large number of his drawings, paintings, and objects. The photos are part of the description; please feel free to hover to zoom and click to enlarge. We strive to show you as much detail and realism as possible in the photos to ensure your satisfaction with your purchase.
