Description

Country table in pitch pine - 230 × 140 cm - exceptional one-of-a-kind piece Custom-made for the council chamber of a town hall in the Landes region, this solid pitch pine table impresses with its unusual dimensions: 230 cm long, 140 cm wide, 76 cm high with 60 cm of legroom. Its exceptional width, rarely seen on the market, allows it to accommodate up to 14 guests for a meal, a meeting, or a shared moment. Here, conviviality isn't just described: it's experienced. The tabletop, marked by time, offers an authentic patina, an old crack, and the discreet traces of decades of use--all noble scars that remind us that this table has witnessed generations of elected officials deliberating, signed important decisions, and supported the daily life of a community. It is a piece of furniture that transmits history, not just an object that furnishes a space. On each of the two long sides, two drawers--four in total--continue this story: functional, deep, each different, with unique handles. A nod to the past, a touch of soul, a singularity that is no longer manufactured. It's the ideal table for a spacious living room, a country house, a family estate, a reception room, a creative studio, or a charming restaurant. It commands the space without overwhelming it, it provides reassurance, it brings people together--it becomes the hearth around which everything is organized. Asking price: EUR2,000. A value perfectly in line with its rare size, its history, its noble material, and its decorative and functional potential.
