Description

Refined chest of drawers finely veneered in walnut feather, and embellished with geometric inlays made of walnut feather and fruit woods. The piece is distinguished by its truncated pyramid legs, typical of the period, and features four drawers: two smaller ones and two larger, ergonomic ones, ideal for storing various objects. The drawers are decorated with elegant geometric inlays, which are repeated on the sides of the chest of drawers, and are equipped with lost-wax cast bronze handles and locks. This chest of drawers exudes great taste and refinement, capable of furnishing any space with class
