Description

Superb Louis Philippe period porcelain coffee service in the Rococo style. This beautiful service comprises eight cups and saucers, a large coffee pot, a sugar bowl, and a milk jug. It is elegantly enhanced with gold trim. The handles and necks of the pieces are harmoniously shaped. The cups are decorated with a floral motif. This set is in very good condition but naturally shows some wear to the gilding due to use. One of the cups has a discreet little brown stain inside. Shipping within mainland France is EUR40; please contact us for other destinations.
