

Chapska For Lancers Of The French National Guard, Model 1836 / Schapska / Shapska / Szapska

2 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Other

Height : 40 cm

Description

Superb and impressive French lancer's chapska of the National Guard, Model 1836. Rare headdress in very good condition. Minor wear consistent with age. It is made of cardboard covered with black leather and dark blue cloth with red piping. The front is adorned with a silvered copper frontal plate in the shape of a radiant sun, with a brass rooster at its center--the emblem of the July Monarchy. As well as a French cocard made of leather and metal (later repainted). The sides are embellished with two silvered copper lion masks for attaching the chin strap which consists of a metal chain mounted on black leather. The visor is made of black leather decorated with a vegetal scrolls and edged with a silvered copper band. The liner is also made of black leather. Long falling plume of madder-red horsehair very

Dealer

Paris Antiques

Icons, paintings, Asian art and military antiques

Tel : WhatsApp: +33 6 52 51 93 65

Mobile : 06 52 51 93 65

Marché aux Puces de Paris, 129-131 rue des Rosiers
Saint-Ouen 93400

similar to that worn by lancers (but originally for a shako of the mounted artillery). Total height: 40 cm. Height without the plume: 28 cm. Width: 35 cm