Description

Wall console reminiscent of the work of Raymond Subes in the Art Deco style / France circa 1930. This is particularly evident in the materials: wrought iron for the openwork legs, each composed of eight branches with curved ends. A generously sized black marble top (10 cm thick) is inset onto the base. There are some traces of oxidation on the base (see photos) and a tiny chip on the top. Dimensions: Width: 140 cm Depth: 40 cm Height: 74 cm
