Description

Singa Batak is an apotropaic figure (protective magic intended to ward off evil or negative influences, such as misfortune). Singa Batak is a figure from the mythology of the Batak people of North Sumatra in Indonesia. The Singa represents a benevolent and protective power. The word "Singa" is derived from the Sanskrit word Singa, meaning "lion." The Batak term Singa has an essentially magical meaning. This architectural element was found in typical Indonesian houses.
