Description

Travertine console table, a natural stone recognizable by its porous texture and beige and cream hues. Rectangular with rounded edges, the two legs are formed with elegant curves, which bring a touch of softness to the design. Its style is minimalist and contemporary with a retro influence from the 70s-80s, typical of Italian design in matte travertine, natural highlighting the beauty of the raw stone. Ideal as an entryway console, an accent piece in a living room or a decorative stand under a mirror.
