Description

Rare pair of cobalt blue glass obelisk vases with engraved designs, mounted in gilded bronze - 19th century
Exceptional pair of obelisk-shaped vases in cobalt blue glass, richly decorated with engraved and frosted scenes depicting characters of Far Eastern inspiration in a stylized landscape, animated with birds and plants. The decorations, executed with great finesse, are created through delicate engraving and frosting work, producing a remarkable contrast with the depth of the blue glass. Each vase rests on an elegant mount of finely chiselled and gilded bronze, forming a base with leafy scrolls typical of high-quality decorative productions of the 19th century. The edges highlighted with gilded lines emphasize the architectural purity of the shape and give the whole a particularly refined sculptural
