Description

A forged steel scissor knife...With carved ebony handles...With an effective locking mechanism...Everything is in good working order...Dating from the 1860s/70s...By the cutler PICAULT - BORDEAUX...With a patent...A rare utility knife I wasn't familiar with! In good overall condition...The steel is in its original condition; it could be polished or even chromed! Estimate upon request...The horn work is very beautiful...The imperfections are natural to this black horn...It might be bull horn...? The original case is well-used...The leather is worn and missing in places; a clasp is also missing, which I should be able to find! Total weight: 331 grams
