Description

The antique paintings and Seascape Paintings category presents a beautiful seascape, an oil painting on canvas from the early 20th century. The artwork depicts a rough sea, with high waves crashing powerfully against reddish rocks on the right. This Art Deco piece is painted with vigorous brushstrokes and great attention to the movement of the water, while the white foam of the waves creates a strong contrast. The antique painting conveys energy and the force of nature. The seascape is dated 1927 and signed lower right by Léon Galand, a French painter known particularly for his marine scenes, coastal landscapes, and naturalistic subjects. Léon Laurent Galand (1872-1960) was born in Montpellier, France, in 1872 and died in 1960 in Clichy-la-Garenne. He studied under Cormon,
