Description

Sublime ceremonial table with a rectangular centerpiece; A mahogany marquetry table with rich Empire-style ornamentation of finely gilded and chased bronze mounts. The top is a sea-green hue, after a design by Jacob Desmalter. The rectangular table is encircled by a frieze of opposing laurel leaves, supported by four gilt-bronze female caryatids with crossed arms. Two rectangular uprights on either side, decorated with various gilt-bronze motifs, connect the frieze to the H-shaped plinth, which is itself encircled by a handled urn flanked by two seated sphinxes. This Empire-style table was made at the end of the 19th century, around 1860-1870. The original model for this table was created for the bedroom of Caroline Murat at the Élysée Palace by Jacob Desmalter in 1808, and
