Description

This charming Chinese statuette, measuring 19 centimeters high, represents the Laughing Buddha, also known as Budai. His seated posture and jovial expression symbolize good fortune, prosperity, and happiness. The figurine is made of glazed porcelain, with a polychrome Famille Rose style decoration, characterized by bright pink floral motifs on a white background. The robe is adorned with a blue and yellow headband with geometric patterns. The underside of the base reveals a maker's mark. CHINA, late 19th - early 20th century. Two cracks (see the last two photos).
