Description

"The Musical Children," a white porcelain group from Capo di Monte, bearing the blue factory mark and signed KINSBURGER. A young girl stands before a tree trunk, dancing and playing castanets; a young boy sits beside her, accompanying her with cymbals. At the girl's feet is a garland of roses in relief (in perfect condition). The group rests on a base decorated with fruit garlands. A charming scene of joy, conveying the happiness and carefree spirit of childhood. A 19th-century porcelain group in perfect condition.
