Description

Engraving "View of the city of Venice from Chioggia with the Island of St. George the Greater to the side," a colored engraving from the 18th century, but the drawing appears to be 17th century. The engraver is Jacques Chéreau (1688-1776). The inscription reads "In Paris at Jacques Chéreau's, rue St. Jacques, above the St. Séverin Fountain with the two columns. No. 257." There are some age spots, but the engraving is in good condition. The frame will need replacing or regilding on one side. Frame dimensions: 48 x 35 cm. Shipping available worldwide; please contact us.
