

Beautiful Louis XV Period, 18th Century Walnut Double Commode With Crossbow-shaped Top, Rhône

4 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Walnut

Length : 121 cm

Width : 60 cm

Height : 92 cm

Description

A beautiful and interesting double-crown walnut commode in excellent condition. A fine piece from the Rhône Valley, dating from the 18th century, Louis XV period. The walnut has a lovely color and a beautiful, warm, blond patina. There has been virtually no restoration, just a small repair to the edge of the upper left drawer; otherwise, this commode has undergone no restoration whatsoever, even the rear feet are original. The bronze mounts were probably replaced in the 19th century, as traces of earlier work are visible on the drawer fronts. The current drawer pulls are gadrooned bronze, a classic design perfectly suited to the lines of this commode. The top has a curved edge; it is worth noting that it is made of only two large walnut planks, a testament to its quality. The uprights are

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème
antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue

Nogent l'Artaud 02 310

carved from a single piece of wood and decorated with a gendarme's hat motif. The sides are Louis XV style with curved edges and cabriole feet with hooves. The lower rail is hemmed, and the beautiful double-crown design runs the entire length of the front. The drawer interiors and back are made of Original fir wood typical of the Rhône Valley. The drawers slide perfectly, the runners having been serviced. Original wrought iron locks and keys function perfectly. A preventative treatment with xylophene was carried out in the workshop, but no woodworm infestation has been detected! Superb waxed patina on the light-veined walnut. A double-fronted chest of drawers in perfect condition, a timeless classic. Dimensions: Beautiful and interesting double-crown walnut commode in excellent condition. A fine piece from the Rhône Valley, dating from the 18th century, Louis XV period. The walnut has a lovely color and a beautiful, warm, blond patina. There has been virtually no restoration, just a small repair to the edge of the upper left drawer; otherwise, this commode has undergone no restoration whatsoever, even the rear feet are original. The bronze mounts were likely replaced in the 19th century, as traces of earlier work are visible on the drawer fronts. The current drawer pulls are gadrooned bronze, a classic design perfectly suited to the lines of this commode. The top has a curved edge; it is worth noting that it is made of only two large walnut planks, a testament to its quality. The uprights are carved from a single piece of wood and decorated with a gendarme's hat motif. The sides are Louis XV style with curved edges and cabriole feet with hooves. The lower rail is hemmed, and the beautiful double-crown design runs the entire length of the front. The drawer interiors and back are also in excellent condition. Made of fir wood typical of the Rhône Valley. The drawers slide perfectly, the runners having been serviced. Original wrought iron locks and keys in perfect working order. A preventative treatment with xylophone was carried out in the workshop, but no woodworm infestation has been detected. A double-fronted commode in perfect condition, a timeless classic. Dimensions: 121 cm long x 60 cm wide x 92 cm high. We deliver and ship worldwide; please contact us for a precise quote.