Antique Double-strand Necklace In Raw Baltic Amber, 63.5 Cm, Excellent Condition

120 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Other

Length : 63,5 cm

Description

A very original necklace with an ethnic feel, composed of two strands of raw, unpolished Baltic amber beads, separated by small turquoise glass beads. The clasp is preceded by black glass beads. This necklace is very comfortable to wear; it is lightweight, and the amber is soft and warms against the skin. The two strands are 46 cm long for the inner strand and 56 cm for the outer strand, plus 7.5 cm for the clasp and the black beads. Very good condition; weight = 86 grams. Careful shipping at extra cost.
