Description

Louis XVI style fireplace in grey Ardennes marble and white Statuary marble. The fireplace, with its frame and detached columns, features a straight lintel inlaid with two medallions and a central cartouche adorned with white sculpted figures in white Tassos marble. It rests on two tapered columns, the bases of which are decorated with ascending laurel leaves, and the capitals resting on a pearl collar adorned with palmettes. This fireplace is quite simple, yet extremely elegant and refined. Worldwide shipping available.
