Description

Elegant marquetry secretary desk - Louis XV style, early 20th century. This superb tall secretary desk opens with two doors and is richly decorated with endless cube marquetry and enhanced with finely chiseled gilt bronze mounts. Its curved front, undulating pediment, and rocaille ornaments perfectly evoke the Louis XV style as revisited in the early 20th century. The interior offers ample storage space, along with a leather-covered writing surface with gilt tooling, ideal for writing or displaying objects. The marquetry, present on both the sides and the front, testifies to precise and elegant craftsmanship. This refined piece will integrate seamlessly into both a classic interior and a chic contemporary setting, where it will bring character and sophistication.
