Description

Oil on canvas 'Cour borraine' by Sicx We see the snow-covered courtyard of a farm in Élouges, in the Borinage region. The use of colour in the painting is remarkable for the contrast between the predominantly cold, muted tones and the bright, warm accents. The composition uses colour to create balance. Framed in a lightly structured wooden frame with a light brown and gold finish. Frame is 81 by 61 cm Belgian art from the 20th century
