Description

Alain Pareyn was born in 1958. After studying at the Met De Penninghen studio in Paris, he worked as an illustrator for various magazines before dedicating himself fully to painting in the 1990s. His works (generally Orientalist) most often depict scenes of rural life in a soft color palette, portraying figures in everyday situations. This very attractive pastel is titled "Puskar Fair." Frame dimensions: 72cm x 63cm (11cm frame).
