Description

Silkscreen print U.F.O by Jean Leppien This work, entitled U.F.O, depicts three red circles on a blue background. The French-German artist Jean Leppien (1910-1991) studied at the Bauhaus in Dessau under influential artists such as Josef Albers, Wassily Kandinsky, and Paul Klee. He became one of the most important representatives of geometric abstraction in France. In his serial works, Leppien explored the effect of colors in combination with simple geometric shapes, such as the circle. Justified (2/75) and signed in pencil, e.a. stands for épreuve d'artiste (Artist's Proof), a print outside the main edition, usually retained by the artist. Framed without glass. Frame is 31 by 61 cm. Abstract art of the 70s.
