Description

Superb period Art Deco lamp, adorned with a so-called chryselephantine sculpture of a seated female figure in a contemplative pose with an elegant posture typical of the style of the 1920s-1930s. The face and hands are made of a synthetic material of the period (a type of Bakelite). The lamp has a frosted glass shade decorated with gold lines, mounted on a bronze and brass base. The lamp rests on a two-tone marble and onyx base, adding an extra touch of luxury. Dimensions in cm: length 70 X20 hight 35 Very heavy. This item is also available for viewing in my shop in Morbihan, southern Brittany, where you can pick it up if you wish.
