Description

A superb pair of richly decorated and finely crafted porcelain vases in the Vieux Paris style. Each piece features a hand-painted floral central medallion depicting a bouquet of roses, dahlias, and other flowers. The vases are distinguished by their deep cobalt blue enhanced with fine gold gilding, typical of 19th-century Parisian production. The side handles are adorned with sculpted gilt foliage and acorns, adding depth and dimension. The scalloped edges and bases decorated with gilt scrolls attest to meticulous craftsmanship and attention to detail. Dimensions: Height 34 cm, Width 35 cm. Condition: Very good overall condition. Period: Vieux Paris style, 19th century.
