Important decorative Longwy enamel dish, entirely hand-decorated and signed on the reverse. A special edition piece from the "Espace" workshop, dated May 24, 1975, with an original dedication. The exceptional decoration depicts two birds among flowering branches, rendered in a vibrant and contrasting palette. The cloisonné enamels, characteristic crackle glazes, and cobalt blue border highlighted with gold attest to the traditional craftsmanship of Longwy. The reverse bears the stamped mark "Émaux de Longwy - Décoré à la main - France" (Longwy Enamels - Hand-decorated - France), along with the artist's signature and workshop markings.
