Description

This classic Biedermeier mirror is distinguished by its elegant, architectural design. The frame is crafted from warm-toned elm wood/elm veneer and displays the typical calm, linear forms of the era. Two lateral half-columns with dark bases and capitals provide a clear, vertical accent and lend the piece its characteristic presence.
The stylized inlay in the upper panel underscores the craftsmanship of the piece. The mirrored glass displays an age-related patina that preserves its authentic historical character.
Ideal for entrance areas, living rooms or as a standalone piece in modern interiors.
