Description

Mixed media gouache and pastel on paperSize: 51 × 33 cmOriginal frameBeautiful and intimate composition by Joseph Laulié, dated 1983, executed in a refined mixed technique combining gouache washes and structured layers with pastel highlights, giving warmth and depth to the objects.The scene shows a fruit bowl placed on a wooden chair, set in an artist's studio interior, with a painting resting vertically behind.This "painting within the painting" effect is characteristic of Laulié's modernist approach, built on overlapping planes, geometric balance and subtle light.Joseph Laulié (1928-2016) is a French 20th-century painter known for his still lifes, studio interiors and modern compositions where structure and softness blend harmoniously. His mixed-media works on paper are particularly
