Description

Rare and exceptional hexagonal table in light rosewood, adorned with an aluminum band set into the apron. Suitable for dining or meetings. The tabletop rests on a base of aluminum and chromed tubing. The adjustable feet are original and in excellent condition. The chrome is not oxidized. The original black lacquered aluminum plates are in good condition. The screw-in mortise and tenon joints are in good condition. The tabletop shows some normal wear to the original varnish. A very rare model in this version by Giancarlo Piretti from the 1970s. Width 150 cm at the points, 130 cm at the flats of the hexagon. Height 73.5 cm (adjustable via the screws at the ends of the plates). To be collected in Nevers. Delivery possible to Paris. Delivery possible between Nevers and Montpellier.
