Description

A charming 19th-century oil on canvas depicting a lively scene of dice players, inspired by the style and costumes of the 17th century. Three richly dressed figures are gathered around a table in a warm and theatrical atmosphere. One observes the game with amusement while the other two concentrate on the game itself, giving the composition a vivacity typical of genre scenes of this period. The work bears a signature in the lower right corner, which remains to be deciphered. Its period Napoleon III wood and stucco frame adds further charm. Dimensions: Height 55 cm - Width 46 cm
