Description

A superb 19th-century still life, painted in oil on canvas, depicting a finely decorated stoneware pitcher accompanied by a dark goblet and a collection of carefully arranged citrus fruits. The balance of forms, the softness of the shadows, and the richness of the colors create an intimate and warm atmosphere, typical of compositions from that century. The work is signed in the lower left corner and is presented in a Napoleon III period frame, which particularly enhances the depth and simplicity of the scene.
