Description

The painting presents an allegorical or mythological portrait (possibly a nymph or a bacchante). It is painted in an oval format, highly prized for intimate subjects. The figure is reclining, her bare back turned towards the viewer, and she rests on light fabrics and a greenish-toned cushion. Her head is tilted back, and her blond, curly hair is pulled up. The work is presented in a richly sculpted and gilded frame, adorned with laurel wreaths and acanthus leaves.
