Description

A very large oval platter...Slightly concave...Made of white glazed porcelain...With a red glazed Marly...Rim and frieze painted in gold...And indoors a scene in the foreground of Joachim Murat wearing his Polish dress...Battle of Jena on October 14, 1806....It is taken from a painting painted by Chartier in 1895...19th century, circa 1850/60...Manufactured by: VIEUX PARIS - FRANCE...Signed in the paste on the back, see photo...In very good condition, a chip on one of the lower rims...And some minor wear consistent with age...Personally, I wouldn't venture to say which battle it depicts...! One of the battles during Napoleon's reign...Perhaps some experts can tell me...?!In any case, it's beautifully crafted in terms of decoration and painting...Weight: 3 kg 24 g
