

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Manufacture De Sèvres - Pair Of Dessert Dishes From The Service Presented By Napoleon To Régnaul

1 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Visible in Paris. Free worldwide delivery via DHL. Pair of dessert dishes Hard porcelain enhanced with gilding Marked with a red iron stamp for the white, the turner (incised) and the gilder Dimensions: D. 27 (cm.) Sèvres, 1809 Pair of circular dishes, the marli with a myrtle frieze, and the basin with a scattering of barbel. A prestigious provenance Michel Regnault (or Regnaud) of Saint-Jean-d'Angély was a loyal supporter of Napoleon. A civilian craftsman of power, he held many positions. Minister, secretary to the imperial family, tireless lawyer, but also an unrivaled orator, he was the perfect image of the figures on whom the regime was built. This service underwent several restocks, including that of December 31, 1810. These coincide with the happy events that fell under his

Dealer

Schoppmann Art and Antiques

Mobilier, objets d'art et décoration

Mobile : 0666629452

838 chemin de la Lauve

Saint-Raphaël 83700

responsibility with regard to the civil status of the imperial family. In our case, this probably refers to his marriage to Marie-Louise. References: Register of items received at the sales store, Vu1, fol. 78 Register of sales at the Sèvres Manufactory, Vy19, fol. 34 v° Comparative bibliography: Napoleon I and the Sèvres Manufactory. The art of porcelain in the service of the Empire, edited by Camille Leprince. Condition report: normal wear and tear on the basins