Description

An elegant and imposing Louis XVI style girandole in bronze and crystal, made in the early 20th century. Its exceptional height of 85 cm gives it a sculptural presence rarely seen in this type of piece. It unfolds around four candle arms, richly decorated with glass bobeches and cut crystal drops. The frame is adorned with a magnificent array of clear and amethyst crystals, whose nuances accentuate the depth and sophistication of the decoration. The cut rosettes, elongated pendants, prisms, and tinted drops compose a veritable luminous architecture, enhanced by a finely cut crystal finial. The beautifully sculpted bronze stem rests on a base of classically ornamented pieces of exquisite craftsmanship. The entire piece is in very good condition and has been rewired, ensuring
