Description

Art Deco Two-Tier Side or Centre Table in Wood, France ca. 1920 France / 1920 / side or centre table / wood / Art Deco A distinctive example of early French Art Deco design, this 1920s two-tier table combines geometric clarity with refined craftsmanship. Made from richly toned wood, the piece features an elegant stepped silhouette: a lower octagonal shelf paired with a slightly smaller upper tier, both connected by a sculptural central support that curves gracefully upward. Slender vertical posts give the upper tier a light, architectural presence, while the chamfered edges and warm finish highlight the quality of the wood. The table's graphic form and thoughtful proportions embody the Art Deco movement's blend of modernity, symmetry, and understated ornament. The table has been
