Description

Raffaele Giannetti (Genoa, 1858 - 1941), Ligurian painter active between the 19th and 20th centuries, known for his portraits and genre scenes, distinguished by fine naturalistic detail and strong psychological presence. Description of the artwork: Elegant male portrait painted in 1916, executed in oil on canvas. The sitter, a refined young man, is depicted with a soft brushstroke and restrained palette characteristic of early 20th-century bourgeois portraiture. The measured expression and careful attention to detail--particularly the face, the slim moustache and the formal attire--reveal Giannetti's accomplished technique and refined sense of realism. Date: 1916. Technique: Oil on canvas. Dimensions: Without frame: 29 × 38 cm With lacquered and gilt frame: 38.5 × 48
