Description

An elegant articulated bracelet in 18K white gold, composed of a series of openwork and finely chiseled elements, whose design evokes the refined aesthetic of the Art Deco period or the early 20th century. Each link features delicate ornamentation: fine scrolls, scalloped lines, and precise settings of old-cut diamonds, giving the piece great luminosity and a sparkling brilliance. Between the main segments, rows of fine, calibrated, baguette-cut synthetic sapphires add a subtle touch of color in characteristic deep blue hues. Their perfectly regular integration emphasizes the symmetry and geometry inherent in early 20th-century creations. The articulated structure ensures comfortable wear. The clasp is secure and comes with a safety chain. Condition: Very good overall condition. Minor scratches on
